Kokua Mau April Newsletter

April 2010

Dear Jeannette,

There is still room in the upcoming Ohana Chronicles-Preserving Life's Memories workshops. The first, held in March, had 10 enthusiastic participants. All of us were motivated to start working on our projects documenting loved ones' lives. This fun workshop is for anyone who wants to capture and preserve memories, but never knew how to tackle their good intentions...

Ohana Chronicles Workshops

Sat. April 17, 1-4pm, Waikiki

Fri. May 7, 9-12noon, Ewa Beach

"Great. Inspiring."

"Helped us to "feel" projects will be a reality - Your positive approach is most inspiring"

"Motivating/Encouraging - Makes me want to go home and start making movies!" -

- participant feedback from the first workshop

'Ohana Chronicles Workshops: - Preserving Life Memories. Janette Sargent-Hamill will teach fun, hands-on tools for caregivers, volunteers, and professional healthcare providers to assist families through the valuable process of documenting the life of a loved one. Several generations can be involved with this project. Now is the time!! More \(& registration form\) on our website These
