Please join us for a live demonstration with two outstanding archivists, Helen Wong Smith and Tisha Aragaki, from the University of Hawai`i, Manoa, Library, University Records Archive and The Henry Ku`ualoha Giugni `Ulu`ulu Moving Image Archive at University of Hawai`i West Oahu (`Ulu`ulu), respectively.

During this hour we will explore accessing the amazing life work of Dr. Aoki as it is archived by the University of Hawaii. The Mitsuo Aoki Archive Collections include the unpublished written work that Dr. Aoki kept of his own notes for his talks, sermons, class lecture notes, trainings and articles which were donated by the Mits Aoki Legacy Foundation following his death. These are his personal notes used to give his oral presentations and were handwritten and typed on a manual typewriter.

Over 240 videos were donated to `Ulu`ulu of mostly unseen footage taken to produce the "Living Your Dying" documentary and miscellaneous other videos of Dr. Aoki. These were recently digitized with a grant from the Hawai`i Council for the Humanities, National Endowment for the Humanities, along with a matching funds contribution from the Mits Aoki Legacy Foundation, and in-kind contributions from the University of Hawaii. They are being made available for public viewing through `Ulu`ulu.
