February 2009

Dear Jeannette,

We are happy to announce that the redesigned, improved Kokua Mau website www.kokuamau.org is now up and running. Please click here to visit our website.

Improved Kokua Mau Website launched

We hope that the new, expanded layout of the Kokua Mau website will better assist you to find local and national resources. Whether you are a member of the public looking for clear and helpful information or a professional in search of networking or education. Please visit our calendar section and the most recent articles in the What's New section.

POLST Legislation this Session

Read about innovative legislation we are working on this year called POLST (Physicians Orders for Life Sustaining Treatments.) POLST will improve coordination and communication between terminally ill patients and their providers.

Kokua Mau, as part of coalition with healthcare providers and the Department of Health, is spearheading efforts to pass this groundbreaking legislation. Read more about POLST by clicking here.

Thank you to our Funders

These updates to the website are done to better serve you, our community and members.

We are grateful to the Atherton Family and Cooke Foundations for their generous support of the website upgrade. We are also grateful to Pacific Entertainment for their technical support.

Join Kokua Mau!

We hope that you will also take this opportunity to join Kokua Mau. Your donations are vital to enable us to accomplish our mission of providing good end-of-life care for all people in Hawaii. Our home www.kokuamau.org page explains how you can join as either an individual or an organization. The on-line donation feature makes donating quick and easy. Thank you for your generosity.

We look forward to your feedback on the website.
